ERP Developer (Ref: DEX-2017-02)

Dexterity Solutions Ltd is involved in the development, marketing and technical support of cutting-edge software solutions for local and international clients. We are the authorised partner for Priority Software in Cyprus.

We are seeking to employ an excellent software developer to join our talented team working on the specification, design and development of applications, mostly based on the Priority platform.

This is full-time position based in our office just outside Nicosia, suitable for people who enjoy working in a challenging environment, and have a passion for technology and its ability to transform business.

Qualifications

- University degree in a related subject
- At least 2 years experience in programming ERP or similar systems
- Excellent skills in database programming
- Experience of the Microsoft .NET Framework and associated technologies
- Good understanding of enterprise business processes
- Basic knowledge of accounting principles
- Excellent analysis and communication skills
- Fluent in Greek and English

We offer a competitive salary based on ability & experience and flexible working conditions.

If you are interested in the above position splease send us your Curriculum Vitae with a cover letter to careers@dexterity.com.cy quoting the above reference.

www.dexterity.com.cy

Only candidates with an EU work permit and permanent residence in Cyprus will be considered.